

Dear Community member!

Winter is around the corner in the Northern Hemisphere! So, it is time to share some special news with you:

Kamaleo[®] is always striving to better support change agents who seek to develop their leadership. Consequently, Dulce María Vázquez –Kamaleo’s founder–, has initiated the Master Coach Program at the acclaimed Hudson Institute of Santa Barbara.

If you’ve collaborated with Dulce María, you know you will partner with an open, natural, fluid and positive person that has been trained to guide you to find your own answers. Her listening, thinking and globalness will be at your service to develop the best version of yourself as a leader.

Here a couple of photos of her recent visit to California where a selected group of Certified Hudson Coaches, have initiated this unique learning journey to strive for mastery. Kudos to all of them!

In addition, if you would like to explore a great book, here is our favorite during last season!

The idea behind it : less is better.

“Essentialism. The Disciplined Pursuit of Less”, Greg McKeown

Enjoy it!

We will write to you in the next edition. In the short term, our best wishes for the new season! And of course, if you have a minute, drop us a note. We will love to hear from you!

Let’s talk!
